

Graffito

Jimena Lopez's Flagship Wine from 110+ Year Old Vines

These deeply concentrated wines are named after the color of “graphite” and shows beautiful expression and structure.

Winemaker Jimena Lopez left her corporate wine job to pursue her dream of making her own wine, and she now handles all aspects of Graffito from vine selection to the final blend with a precise attention to detail.

She believes so deeply in her wine quality that she puts her fingerprint stamp of approval right on the label.

Jimena made her own winemaking dream a reality when she came across an old-vine Malbec vineyard planted in 1908 in Alto Agrelo farmed by Don Pepe and his family. The balance and structure coming from these old vines are the pillars of Graffito.

Jimena also sources grapes from family-owned vineyards in Los Arboles and Vistaflores in the Uco Valley to round out her wines with the perfect blend of fruit flavors, floral notes, and spices.

This small personal project of Winemaker Jimena Lopez is known for incredible richness, amazing concentration, and ethereal aromas.
