

Sekthaus Raumland

Epitome of German Sekt Greatness

The sekthaus was founded by Volker and Heide-Rose Raumland. They have been settled in Villa Merkel in Flörsheim-Dalsheim in Rheinhessen with kellerei in Mölsheim since 1990 and 1993, respectively. Before then, Volker also worked with sekt in various places in Europe being in love with sparkling wine from a younger age.

His basic cuvees carry the names of his daughters – Cuvee Marie-Louise (100% Pinot Noir) – benchmark of refinement and purity, Cuvee Katherina Blanc de Noir (Pinot Noir and Pinot Meunier) more power, more structure, dense and creamy with a touch of oak.

For their production methods, they believe in time and temperature – The wine sits long on the yeast in the cool cellars, it's done when it's done. Their image of great sparkling wine is Champagne, but they don't do imitations. They make Sekt, not Champagne, their own product and their driving force is that 'Qualität geht immer noch besser' – Quality can always be improved.
